HAVAS

Paris, June 13th.—Telegrams from London announce that at a council of well-known Orleanists held yesterday at Sheen House, the Comte de Paris lauded the conduct of the Duc d'Orleans in his recent escapade, resulting in two months' imprisonment and the pardon of President Carnot.

Berlin, June 13th.—It is stated in diplomatic circles that Baron von Rotenhan, the Minister in Buenos Ayres, will replace Count Berchem as Under-Secretary of Foreign Affairs.

MONTEVIDEO

(From our own Correspondent)

Friday, June 13th.

It has been resolved that the ordinary sittings of the Legislature shall continue till July 15th.

Contrary to expectation, the Bolsa is much worse. National Banks opened at 92, fell to 86 and closed at 90 cash; Obras 25 to 22⅞, closed 23¼; Transatlantico 18. Nothing done in other stocks and little in these.

The rumour about "curso forzoso" is all nonsense—a mere Bolsa bogey.

Intense cold continues.

BALLOONING.

The gas escapes! Down, down it comes—we mean the balloon—and the earth seems, in the eyes of the aeronaut, to swell beneath him. Maddened by danger, he rushes wildly to the ballast and throws out bag after bag. The effect is startling. As if relieved of a tremendous weight, the balloon soars again and floats peacefully for a while. But then down it comes again with all the increased force of reaction, and again the bewildered aeronaut throws out ballast and by each concession he makes to appease devouring space he hastens towards the unavoidable end. He throws out his watch and chain, his clothes, his precious barometer, and he manages for a brief moment to float. But the downward rush comes with thrilling rapidity, the bump against the hard ground cannot be delayed, the aeronaut is thrown out and the balloon destroyed. To us mortals below, it seems but natural that the culmination of a flight in a balloon should be a fall.

The ups and downs of the foregoing scene which, with a few strokes of the pen, we have endeavored to bring vividly before the notice of our readers, are highly suggestive. From our impartial standpoint we have occasion to witness the same thrilling "peripeties" every day, in different atmospheres but with the unavoidably same result. A year ago, when in the midst of general inflation, the pastime of ballooning was begun with all the enthusiasm novelty inspires, many an aerial concern was started and successfully floated. Proudly, elegantly, the shapely vessel rose in a calm market. It soared thousands of feet and floated beautifully. But the gas escapes! The aeronaut, at his wits'ends, throws out a huge package of receipts for call no 2, and the balloon soars again and floats peacefully and serenely once more. The inflation, however, does not last and down it comes again, and so on until the aeronaut, after throwing out his desk, chairs and brass-plate, is himself pitched out and his vessel ingloriously collapses. Bruised and bleeding he lies stretched on the hard ground and weeps over the lost ballast he might have applied with profit to some useful and surer undertaking. The career of the speculator is a flight in a balloon. When high in the air, he little dreams of the inevitable collapse and looks down on every one, a pleasure he can indulge in at such giddy heights. His capital is his ballast, which must be sacrificed when the descent begins. A man's life is a balloon-flight. He rises, he falls, he rises again, relapses and perishes in his vain efforts to counteract the unavoidable escape of the vital fluid. In fact the aerial simile is so aptly elastic that, with a slight stretch of imagination, we can apply it to almost everything, from the giddy career of the speculator to the last sickness of a man. Everywhere we see ups and downs and the final relapse—ballooning. The ostriches in the pampa, the free banks in the Interior, the sugar industry—all are ballooning. The Cape Virgin gold mines, the Indian, and many once prized concerns have ballooned.

But perhaps the most striking case of ballooning is that which contemporaneous history records in the case of the Citizen-King of France. Thereabouts, in the year 1848, when a terrible financial crisis had been calmed down by the timely issue of 200 franc notes, the gas began to escape. Frauds were discovered in the arsenals, in the banks, and in every department of the Government. Public opinion was ruffled and the balloon began to fall with alarming rapidity. Ballast in the form of an unpopular Cabinet was thrown out, and up went the royal aeronaut again. He commenced to look down from what seemed to him an everlasting height. But, unfortunately, the gas was escaping. More ballast of the Ministerial kind was thrown out to appease a devouring populace. "Happy", said the Citizen-King to his ministers, "are you, for you can resign and I cannot" But the supply of ballast was soon exhausted, and then the most cherished objects had to be sacrificed to prevent a fall brought about, not by a revolution of blood, but, as Lamartine puts it, by a revolution of contempt. In a word, the royal aeronaut and his collapsing balloon were driven across the channel, a feat many subsequent air-navigators have endeavoured to accomplish from purely scientific motives. That was certainly a striking case of ballooning, and we merely mention it to show the progress of the science.

Since that time, however, a valuable acquisition has been discovered in the parachute, which often saves the aeronaut from the fatal consequences of his rashness. The best of all parachutes is a good, sound fortune. But for that the late Emperor of Brazil would be in sad straits to-day. There are a host of other instances shewing alike the importance of the parachute. However, we have wandered from our subject, and we merely desire to impress on the reader that we have, each in his own particular sphere, been ballooning for the last two years. Many things have ballooned, if we may be allowed the expression. With the delicacy of the old Roman, we will not say that they are dead, but that they have lived.

LONDON LETTER

GENERAL TOPICS.

London, May 3rd.

The leading financial journals have no leading articles to-day upon Argentine finance. It is pleasant to observe the Statist simply reporting that "Argentine securities are further appreciated. The gold premium of Buenos Ayres, after sinking to 140, advanced to 144½ per cent, but is last advised as having again receded to below 130. Cedula issues have been in special favor and large purchases have been made speculatively as well as for investment."

The following from the Statist will interest your wheat growers:—"If the Silver Party in the United States successfully carry its proposed legislation and the measure is concurred in by the country, wheat is likely to be considerably higher for some time to come that it has been for several years past. The legislation will therefore assist not only our own wheat farmers but those of Russia, Australia and South America, while it will bear rather hardly upon the wheat growers in the United States and in India. As we pointed out last week, an inflation of the American currency must necessarily raise wages and prices in the United States".

I was amused at seeing a letter in the Pall Mall Gazette from some one who wanted to pose the bi-metallists with the question, "why has not the paper currency in Buenos Ayres had the effect that the Manchester people say would be produced in India by the depreciated value of the rupee?" Of course it had the same effect. Mr. Levy, from the National Liberal Club, undertook to answer the query. His explanation is rather turgid and technical. He might have simply referred the questioner to Mr. Jenner's Report to Lord Salisbury, in which the action of a depreciated paper is fully discussed in its relations, favorable and unfavorable, to producers and consumers, exporters and importers. The Silver Bill in the United States is looked upon with great interest, as it affords an actual example of what the bimetallists want without our own government taking the trouble to tamper with the existing currency standard. It will act exactly as inflated paper does. It will raise prices and perhaps wages, without permanently benefiting either producer, consumer or wage receiver. It will lead to a turn out of all the old unsaleable silver coins in Germany, Holland, Roumania, Italy and other countries, and will end in lower prices for silver and all the terrors of a reaction after a boom of temporary inflation. The selfishness and ignorance of the Manchester manufacturers in this question are not inconceivable, for they occurred before in the matter of Free Trade when they happened to lead to good, as they previously led to protection, towards which their low and selfish interests seem to tend once more. The bimetallist move in the House of Commons under the ægis of Mr. Samuel Smith was, as you will have seen, a complete failure and was effectually snubbed by all the leading men in the House, excepting Mr. Balfour, whose bimetallist fancies must have some connection with the society for psychical research and other fads of the young intellect of the day. Not that anyone is disposed to smile or scoff at the mystical. The late Mr. Edmund Gurney, who was in some respects another Balfour, believed in ghosts, and Lady Arthur Hill has just seen one. She is an accomplished lady who composes music and writes and acts plays and was literally engaged in private theatricals when, coming out of her dressing room she saw a Mr. H— standing against the wall in front of her. She went up and spoke to him and held out her hand in a friendly way, H—— shook his head and turned aside. Lady Arthur knew the man's funny manners, and went behind the scenes and thought no more of it. But H—— was a ghost! Before the day of the theatricals Mr. H—— had died, and when Lady Arthur Hill was told of it she refused to believe it, for had she not seen him and spoken with him upon the evening of the play? The grand question is how much of these pyschical phenomena are objective? To Lady Arthur Hill poor H—— was a living, real, objective fact. But her mind was excited by the triumphs and cares of her histrionic performances, and H—— might only have been a subjective existency, or, otherwise, a loiterer in the theatre and resembling her H——. However, that is not a necessary explanation of a curious fact. But it suggests a correct explanation of another, the Red Spectre, which every Government in Europe thought it saw on May Day and didn't. Never, surely, did Governments appear in a more ridiculous position. Nothing happened. Even in this dear London, where Mr. Munro had made great preparations to out-general poor Mr. Hyndman and his Social Democrats, I saw at twelve o'clock at night dark battalions of bobbies going home with their tails between their legs, looking conscious of having been fooled. "Oh, yes!" some little chap may say, "but what if the Governments had not been prepared?" Why, just what occurred at Barcelona and Roubaix, where the men were on strike and ready for a row—it does not appear pillage. The strikers and the mobs of excited continental workmen are a danger always and must be guarded against by the authorities, but on this occasion the disturbances that did occur had little and in some cases no direct connection with the Mayday demonstration, or with the socialists. With few exceptions perfect quiet reigned on Mayday throughout Europe; not that the socialists are all Quakers and will not fight when they get the chance, but as possibilists they will calculate their chances and for the present be satisfied with the astounding progress of their opinions through the pacific means and channels of demonstrations and economic literature and the press. The marvellous economic changes which are taking place under our eyes and have been so well put forward by Mr. David Wells, an author well known in the United States, are the real enemies of Orthodox views of government and society. The poor Socialists are at once the straws raised by the wind and the moaning of the wind which affrights capitalists. I am going to see the tulips in Hyde Park. Nothing in the evening papers.

MEMS FROM NEW YORK.

BROKERS IN WALL-STREET.

(Cuttings from Exchanges)

As an escape from the prevailing dullness on the Stock Exchange, it has been suggested in one of the big daily papers during the week, that the Exchange should do as its members have often advised railroad constructors to do—stop business until the country catches up with them. That the number of brokers is in excess of the present needs of the public is very evident, and if some of them will not make vicarious sacrifices of themselves by turning to other pastures, the whole lot of them will soon have to starve in their offices or take a vacation, until the people who have money get ready once more to risk it on a turn of the figures on the dial.

The suggestion of the writer in the Times is that the Exchange be closed until there is business for all. In the meantime, instead of shearing the innocent lamb that occasionally strays in among them, or trying to pull the wool off each other, they might devote themselves to some honest, if rather laborious occupation. They could betake themselves to the rural districts, enjoy the fresh breezes, and prove themselves useful citizens by earning their board—something many of them have not done for a long while—by assisting in the development of the crops. It would be a novel change for them, and as variety is the spice of life, they should enjoy it.

That the dullness of business on the Exchange is not due to any lack of confidence in the country's future was plainly shown by the upward tendency manifested by securities all week long. The sales and purchases were probably the smallest known in many years, but prices generally showed an advance. Money also was easy, and it is therefore clear that the absence of transactions was not caused by a scarcity in this respect.

The April interest and dividend payments hardly made themselves felt, and when they do there may be a very noticeable advance in the amount of business done on the Exchange, as well as in the quotations, but it is doubtful. The moneyed public seem to have gotten tired of Wall street for the present at least, and unless something happens that will revive the speculative spirit—such as the making of big fortunes in a few days—the brokers are likely to whistle for customers for some time longer.

For weeks and months Wall Street has been uttering its tale of woe based on the fact that the outside public no longer speculates. Brokers have been almost literally living off each other, and tough diet they have one and all proven themselves to be. Commissions have shrunk to infinitesimal proportions and days pass sometimes before they amount to enough in even large houses to pay for a square meal at Delmonico's. The habitues of the Stock Exchange have seen and experienced all this, have shaken their heads in owl-like wonder, and asked the reason why, in wild amazement.

That there are several reasons is not to be denied. One is the tightness of money in consequence of the constant contraction that is going on in the currency; another is the many outside opportunities offered to outside capital; and a third, and perhaps the most important, is the fact that the general public has well-nigh lost all confidence in Wall Street people.

When the Stock Exchange furnishes material almost daily for a scandal of one sort or another, and brokers undertake to betray or sell out their best customers, they might think that the outsiders will not hear of these things unless the newspapers get hold of them; but they are mistaken; the stories, even when they fail to be printed with sensational headlines, are known through the well-to-do community, and have the very natural effect of making reputable persons with some money to spare fight shy of everything connected with the Street. If the stock brokers want to restore their business to its old-time proportions, it is high time to purify themselves. They must cease, for instance, from what they playfully called "coppering a customer," and they must not shield any one of their guild from the legal penalties prescribed by the criminal code for blackmailing, as they are trying to do at the present moment. They may recognize the binding force of the moral rule that when a man entrusts his money to them to buy a certain stock it is a breach of trust for them to take that stock afterward and to use it to manipulate the market to that man's loss and to their gain; and they must also learn to understand that if one of them is caught in breaking the laws of the State the offence is not against themselves alone, but also against all the people of the State, and that to shield the wrong-doer is the same thing as abetting him in his crime.

The New York Stock Exchange should lose no time in showing to the public that it is not altogether tried with the same stick as some of its members that have become notorious lately. It should not allow those caught in "flagrante delicto," so to speak, to sell out, and assist them to hush the matter up. It should undertake a rigid exposure and assist in meeting out condign punishment. When it does this it may find that the community will have a return of confidence in those doing business on the floor.—Export and Finance

CENTRAL PRODUCE MARKET.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

(Continuation)

Art. 10—All excess in consignments shall be treated by the Judge Commisary in the form and method laid down in Art. 8, as often as there is just cause for the error, immediate despatch being given to all that the weigh-bill covers. In the event of the error not being justified, proceedings will be taken in accordance with Art. 9, which may be said to treat especially and almost exclusively thereof.

Art. 11—The Judge Commisary shall draw up a code of bye-laws embracing not alone the rules that govern the clerks under his special command, as regards order, vigilance, discipline, etc., but also the cartmen, peons and labourers of all classes and denominations, for the greater security of all goods committed to their care. Said code being once duly approved by the Executive power, the Judge may place under arrest all defaulters thereunto.

Art. 12—In the absence of the Judge Commisary, his place will be filled by the Secretary, having the identical attributes, duties and responsibilities.

Art. 13—The Judge Commisary is bound to execute the decrees of all the Judges of the 1st Instance in the Province, as also those of the Justices of Peace when treating of offences of minor degree and touching the goods and persons under his vigilance, orders or safeguard.

Art. 14—The revision of produce and its checking-off with the weigh bills must be performed personally by the Judge or his secretary.

Art. 15—The Judge Commisary must keep a full list of the weigh-bills alphabetically and by order of date annually, as likewise all notes, resolutions and other documents addressed to him by any authority, and in which it has not even been found necessary to take action.

Art. 16—All goods on which the fair and legal dues or taxes have not been duly paid the Judge Commisary must see to the faithful collection of same together with the fines incurred by said omission, proceeding to confiscate same or to require bail for the full amount thereof.

Art. 17—The judge of the market shall provide the owners or their representatives with all the information they may require or with copies of the weighbills or other documents of the archive on stamped paper of 50 cents provided by the applicant.

Art. 18—As regards produce conveyed by the Riachuelo the judge Commissary must see to the faithful observance of the Custom House laws, as also the fulfilment of the provisions and requirements necessary to prove its legality; in case always that it comes from this province.

Art. 19—The judge Commissary shall keep a book of each day's receipts, each page containing the statistical record of the entrance of the several articles and their quantities; name of the consignee or "capataz"; date of the entrance and deposit of same; fine incurred or any other pertinent note or observation.

Art. 20—The Archive Office must be careful to preserve rough or correct copies of all the notes passed, decrees issued etc. etc., touching the infraction of the law or the difficulties in the despatch of produce etc. etc.; all arranged in order of date by months and years.

Art. 21—He is likewise empowered to open bales or cases so as to satisfy himself of the contents thereof, as also for the purpose of imposing (whenever necessary) the fines and penalties established by the law of September 23rd, 1829, on marks in bales and packages.

Art. 22.- All produce brought in by railway must be presented to the judge within forty-eight hours from its first remittance, passing which time new weigh-bills will have to be made out before it can be presented to the judge.

Art. 23.—With the exception of the foregoing rule no weighbill is valid for more than a troop of horse or bullock carts, whose produce is presented in the market on that day.

Art. 24—The judge commissary shall also extend his vigilance beyond the radius of the market and shall proceed against the smugglers of produce, laying violent hands on the goods, and proceeding in accordance with the procedure laid down by law.

Art. 25—A full statistical statement of the entrance of produce and the working of the office must be presented monthly to the director-general of revenues.

ARGENTINE COLONIST HUNTERS.

Dr. Wilhelm Loewenthal, of Paris, has addressed the following letter to the Editor of the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin:—

Paris, 11th April, 1890.

Sir,

Owing to urgent professional duties, it has not been possible for me hitherto to publish the results of my journey of research in Argentina; nor did I think it very urgent to do so, because I was permitted to hope that my reports to the Argentine Government would lead to energetic action on its part against the worst evils. In course of time I suppose that such action will be taken; meanwhile, however, I have just learned things which render it my duty to publish a preliminary and all the more urgent warning against an immediately threatening danger. For some days past there has been living here in Paris an agent from Argentina, a Russian by birth, who avails himself of an alleged order of the Argentine Government to co-operate in the sale of 24,000 square leagues of Argentine State-lands; to give himself an official air, and to transact another piece of business with the help of it, namely, to enlist German, Swiss, Belgian, and South Russian emigrants as colonists for a new settlement of 50,000 hectares in the Chaco Austral (Argentine), at present Indian territory. This man, who speaks German, French, English, Spanish and Russian, and wears venerable grey leg-of-mutton whiskers, and a white and red order ribbon in the buttonhole of his elegant black coat is eminently fitted to impress inexperienced people with the conviction that the settlement in question, of which he professes to possess 5,000 hectares, and the brilliant prospectuses of which he has with him, is a paradise on earth. In view of this, I deem it my duty to declare that I found the European colonists just in the immediate vicinity of this settlement in the most unhappy situation, succumbing to the extremely hot and unhealthy climate, to a veritable plague of insects, and, worst of all, treated in every respect as slaves by unscrupulous owners, who do as they please in that thinly-peopled region. Of course, I cannot know whether the owners of the new settlement do not intend to treat their colonists, when they once have any, more humanely; but I know and attest, on the evidence of my own eyes, that the gentlemen have already got made for their settlement the notorious private paper money, with the help of which the colonist in those regions is transformed into a slave. The agent intends to go from here to Belgium, Switzerland, North Germany, East and West Prussia (perhaps also Silesia), and South Russia (German settlements), and to stay several weeks in each of these countries, enlisting colonists. It would, therefore, be advisable that people in the said countries should keep their eyes open for some time to come. Whether other enlisters are availing themselves of the good opportunity of the sale of Argentine State lands in Europe for the same purpose, I do not know, but it is likely. I hope that the press in the threatened countries will circulate this warning, and thereby save the inhabitants from the machinations of such colonist hunters, who practice their deception on the strength of the good reputation of the Argentines.

Wilhelm Loewenthal.

Railway Items.

The Public Works' Department has asked the Executive to approve the new plans presented by the F. C. Nord Oeste Argentino with reference to the fittings of the 1st class stations.

Messrs. Lucas Gonzalez & Co. have collected from the National Treasury the sum of £82003.15 for the work executed on the prolongation of the Central Northern Railway for the month of April last.

Sr. Vicente Arias has presented an estimate to the Government for the lighting of the line from Chilcas to Jujuy.

The Treasury Procurator has asked the Government to approve the tariffs proposed for the Central Chubut Line.

The City Improvement Works Lessees and the tramway companies are at loggerheads. The cause of the quarrel is that, in the torn-up streets, the companies are compelled to put down small bridges, and the lessees compel them to pay six dollars per bridge. The lessees, moreover, require the companies to have their own men to lift or put down the bridges, as the case may be, and light up the squares at night. This state of things will affect the health of tramway shareholders. In a future issue we shall give more particulars about this quarrel.

The River Plate Times says:—

The other matter on which we have to offer our congratulations is, the amicable settlement, for the present at all events, of the vexed question of railway tariffs. The well-abused Central Uruguay Railway Company has quietly refuted its calumniators and proved in a manner as convincing as it is dignified, that it is not the hard-hearted and greedy oppressor its enemies would make it out to be, but is quite capable of attending to and remedying complaints when they are well-founded, and when the doing so does not clash with the primary rights of the shareholders. The letter addressed to the Minister of Government by the Managing Director places the matter in the clearest light, and is worthy of much consideration. One sentence in it, which has already attracted the attention of thinking people deserves to be quoted again and again. "Every immigrant established in the vicinity of the railway is a further guarantee of increased production and therefore of further reductions in our tariffs." This is a happy combination of promise and stimulus, bearing its accompanying moral on its face. Once more, we offer our congratulations to the Railway Company equally with the general public.

THE POLITEAMA.

The "pot-pourri" given by the Coquelin Company on Thursday night was the greatest triumph of the season. The house was crowded, the biggest audience we have seen in the theatre since the gala nights of Mme. Patti. Coquelin's monologues and Mme. Judic's "chansonettes" were the great attraction. The curtain rose to the Jurons de Cadillac, a comedy in one act by Pierre Berton, that has lived longer than expected in the favour of the theatrical world. Both M. Coquelin and Mdlle. Barety reaped much applause: the former was superb as usual, but Mdlle. Barety was slightly hoarse, a defect that was much noticed in the subsequent Nuit d'Octobre by Alfred de Musset.

Coquelin, however, redeemed the situation; his pathos in the latter piece was simply overwhelming, and the audience appreciated the rendering of the beautiful verse of the great French poet. In the scene de Democrite, M. Coquelin and Mme. Judic were well matched, and the contrast so ably penned by Reynard was rendered with a force and verve that brought down the whole house. Nothing brings so forcibly to the front the genius of Coquelin as a rapid transition of character and feeling; his love-making was as sublime as his revulsion of feeling was side-splitting when he finds in the object of his adoration his former fiendish wife. Reynard's piece must be commended for its brevity and its wit, short and bitter.

In the monologue "Divorcée" Mme. Judic showed her great powers of concentrating interest on herself and her acting for over half an hour without tiring the audience. From beginning to finish she kept up an extraordinary entrain, but we doubt if even she with all her ability could have kept up the interest of the audience, but for the sparkling airs that put some variety into the piece. At all events, the monologue was a trial on her strength and she went through the ordeal with a success that could be only expected from a Judic or a Sarah Bernhardt. We need not say that the "chansonettes" that enlivened the monologue were rendered as only Mme. Judic can: the song of the "commissaire" deserves special mention for the "naiveté" and malice combined in both music and words.

Coquelin, as might have been expected, won fresh laurels in his monologues. In the "Naufrage" he rises to a climax that carries away the audience and establishes his supremacy as a declaimer. In Brabazon he imitated the Marseillais with strange perfection, and his play of countenance when referring to the lion's roar is simply exquisitely ridiculous. Encored to the echo, he repeated his monologue of the Englishman's rendering in French of a fantastic and tragic love story in Japan: his semi-English accent and drolleries were eagerly appreciated by the noisy gallery, whose ideas of Jean Boule were evidently those intimated in Coquelin's monologue.

Mme. Judic sang during the evening seven times and each chansonette was a fresh triumph. She has become a wonderful favourite of the public in this particular line, in which she is simply unrivalled. She has the fame of being the greatest singer of this kind to-day, and, if anybody doubt it, let him hear her in the Je suis Chatouilleuse: no words can convey the perfection with which she sings this chansonette; it is inimitable, in fact it is identified with Mme. Judic. The Coquelin company may alway rely on full houses as long as the night's bill of fare comprises monologues, chansonettes, and a variety of performances as on Thursday night. If our readers wish to transport themselves to the boards of the Theatre Français for a few hours let them attend the Politeama; never before has such a complete and versatile company visited the Plata.

To-night the "Femme à Papa" will be given with Judic in a part which fits her like a well-made glove. On no account should this vaudeville, which we reviewed some few days since, be missed as not only does it give the "diva" a full chance of displaying her resources as singer and actress, but affords a full exposition of the strength and beauty of the company.

On Tuesday, "Niniche," with Judic in her original character, will be given; we are rather curious to note whether Huguenet or Duquesne will play the part of the "baigneur" originally filled by the inimitable Dupuis.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The blessed (or otherwise) loan is becoming a confounded nuisance and has now sunk so low in public estimation that the brokers have taken to joking about it, and when brokers take to joking on such a serious matter things may be considered as looking glum indeed. Yesterday, amongst many other queer things, "Messieurs les courtiers" declared that the London bankers refuse now to give a brass farthing unless two eminent Argentines unconnected with Government sign the General Bond!!

The Nacional's skit at the piano-players yesterday was very amusing, very severe, and very true. Never at any time has Buenos Ayres had such an invasion of distinguished pianists as this season.

The President of the Republic started yesterday at 7½ for Arrecifes. He will be back next Friday.

The s.s. Aldersgate landed yesterday two beautiful brood mares in foal for the Stud Baradero.

We are requested to again announce that one of the Passionist Fathers will attend at Belgrano this afternoon, and that there will be a sermon in English at the afternoon service in the parish church to morrow.

What many estancieros predicted during the summer—a bad winter—is at hand. The accounts from all parts of the camp are very gloomy. The long drought and severe frost that is now following it are beginning to have their inevitable effects, and sheep and cattle are dying in many districts.

The Head Quarters Staff of the Argentine Army have just tabooed the telephone and made a rule that no more orders are to be transmitted through it, owing to the continual mistakes made. "Ready, present, fire!" through a telephone certainly sounds decidedly comic. "Open order!" is likely to be mistaken for open something in the refreshment line, and "shoulder arms!" for shoulder of lamb for lunch. The telephone beats the printers in the way of funny blunders.

Here's a capital next summer hint for the Vice-Lord Mayor and the tramway companies. It comes from old Kentucky, and is probably none the worse for that:"In Louisville, Kentucky, the tramcars are utilised for sprinkling the streets, the tramway company having a contract with the corporation. Each car has a perforated pipe or hose along its way side, and as the car travels the water is spurted to either side of the track. It is reckoned that 1,800 gallons are thus rained from each car while its runs through six miles of street."

We again remind all lovers of German drama and dancing of the repetition of the entertainment "My Leopold" to be given to-night at the club "Germania," Calle Alsina 2513. All who were present on Saturday last and wish to see it again are informed that the commencement is fixed for 8.30 o'clock, and that tickets can be had at the Restaurant Gambrinus, Nolte's Book-store, Hotel del Norte, and at the entrance-hall of the club.

It would appear that there is something loose in every public concern in the country. The Free Banks, the Provincial and National ditto, the Custom House, the Western Railway, and now the sub-Custom House at the Riachuelo, where a big steal is said to have been discovered and several employees have been suspended, pending an enquiry.

There was a blaze in the small hours of yesterday morning in a hay store in Calle B, wherever that aristocratic quarter may be. The Bomberos and police came up smiling and soon put out the flames: but the hay and an old galpon were both reduced to ashes, and the owner, Sr. Giorgio, declares that a cent less than $5,000 would not console him for his loss.

A subscriber who tubs regularly every morning tells us that when he tumbled out of bed and entered his bath yesterday morning he had to crash through half an inch of ice. An-ice bath.

It is said that a play is to be produced in Paris on the subject of Jonah, and the first scene, it is said, will be laid in "the interior of the whale." It will have to be a rather big whale.

La Plata Port seems to be getting into business fast. Last month the shipping entered reached 16,500 tons, and outward-bound 20,500.

"Absit omen"! The Report of the Buenos Aires Mortgage Bank, which has just appeared, was printed in the Museum of La Plata. By the time the issue of Cedulas reaches letter Z, these securities will probably be in a condition to figure in the place where the Report about them was printed.

The commander of the garrison intends to give the citizens a treat to-morrow. At 2 o'clock the troops will be paraded in full dress in Avenida Sarmiento, Palermo, for a general inspection and march past the Minister of War.

Here is a valuable hint for married ladies who may be contemplating a trip to England without their lord and master:—"A question of great importance relative to married women temporarily living apart from their husbands, though not separated by deed or judicial decree, has just been determined. The point was whether an allowance made by a husband resident in India to his wife living in England for the maintenance of herself and children, and property purchased therewith, belonged to the husband or was the wife's separate estate. The judge held the property to be separate and therefore liable to be seized in execution for the wife's separate debts."

The concert for the German Hospital on Monday will come off in the German church, Calle Esmeralda. The programme includes some of the choicest sacred productions of Mozart and other great composers.

The latest discovery in chemical science is that a terrific explosive can be made from castor oil. Little children will be delighted to find that some other way of disposing of the nauseous stuff besides pouring it down their unwilling throats has been discovered.

A morning colleague declares that John Bull is fast taking as firm a clutch on this country as if his red-coats were encamped in the Plaza. Between railways, tramways, banks, Cedulas, never-ending loans, etc., Argentina is rapidly becoming English. Our contemporary facetiously adds that when Baring gives us the trifle now being negotiated for, he will have the words "National Custom House" painted on the old Aduana.

The lecture to be given next Wednesday evening in the English Literary Society's rooms by Admiral Grant will be a special attraction. His theme will be the ever memorable Indian Mutiny, with special reference to the part taken in it by the Naval Brigade. The gallant Admiral may feel certain of an overflowing audience, as the great event he has elected to deal with still stirs every English heart—and will for generations to come—with mingled feelings of grief at its terrible episodes and pride at the heroic way in which they were avenged in face of such odds as the world had never seen, and, probably, never will see again.

Queen Anne's cradle is preserved at Hatfield House, the seat of the Marquis of Salisbury. It is a heavy and cumbersome structure of oak, with its massive solidity unrelieved by any attempt at decoration.

We beg to thank the Barracas English Institute for their kind invitation to their ball on the 8th of July.

The River Plate Times gives the following football news. "The following have been selected to represent Montevideo in the football match against Buenos Aires, under Rugby Union Rules, to be played on Sunday next, at 2 p.m. on the Cricket Club Ground. Benedict or Jefferies, Full Back, E. Hale, P. Vignoles and H. Vignoles Three quarters, C. Cox, and O. Scoones' half backs, J. M. Mullaly, Capt. A.D. Dunbar, W. L. Poole, C. Hatfield, G. M. Barrett, P. Chater, A. Lacowrie, Wiedtmann and A. Ellis, Forwards." By to-night's boat the Buenos Aires Football Club is sending down for the first time a team to play the foregoing gentlemen, thus shewing that the good old game of Football is gaining ground in the River Plate. Why not have a Challenge Cup to be competed for annually; there are sufficient clubs now in this part of the world to enable good competition. Following are the names of the players going down. Findlay Back. R Anderson, H. Anderson, A. Crowe, ¾ backs, Plews. Nisbet ½ backs. Cumming (capt.) Mackinnon, Hudson, Earnshaw, Robinson, Hogg, Mayne, Brodie, Taplay. Umpire—Leslie Cory-Smith.

The legislators of tight little Banda Oriental have magnanimously refrained from increasing their pay, and have patriotically resolved to struggle on for some time longer on 400 dols. a month. It must be remembered that these four hundred dollars are as good as gold up to the present.

The public are beginning to feel the next thing to indignant at the "laisser aller" attitude of our "imponderable" Health Board in face of the alarming spread of small-pox in the city and suburbs. This same Board has never been worth its salt, and is now, apparently, worth even less than what that salic currency is supposed to represent. Instead of being up and doing against an epidemic which is really quite as deadly in its effects as one of cholera, the Board is devoting what it no doubt considers its energies to flining more public money away on a nominal Lazaretto on Martin Garcia Island, where such an enormous amount of public cash has already been pitched into the river.

Here are two scissored paragraphs exclusively for our fair readers:—"Persons who are accustomed to use tea leaves for sweeping carpets and find that they leave stains, will do well to employ freshly-cut grass instead. It is better than tea leaves for preventing dust, and gives the carpets a very bright, fresh look

"Some ladies, whose hair is too light for the present fashionable colour, wash it with very strong green tea, which slightly darkens it, and is also an excellent tonic for the hair. This will also stain fair hair turning white. The effect is not permanent, but what does that matter? It can be used daily with good effect. The eyebrows and eyelashes may also be brushed with green tea, and the eyes will grow stronger by doing so."

The new chancel which has been built in Trinity Church, Lomas, will be opened and dedicated by the Lord Bishop of the Falkland Islands, to-morrow, at 10.30 a.m. There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 a. m., and also at mid-day.

The Courrier let fly another "ballon d' essai" yesterday. The said balloon is, of course, a paper one. It is of the size of a hundred millions of fresh shinplasters or Bonds, and is called "Banque Nationale de Re-escompte". As it is a French balloon, it is bound to soar gaily; but whoever goes up in it, if it become law, would do well to take a parachute with him, although one of the clauses of the project declares that the new Bank cannot by any possibility lose a cent, and must realise enormous profits. This is just the kind of banking that suits this country, and there ought to be a tremendous rush to secure allotments of its shares.

The clerks of the National Hypothecary Bank wanted to album, or gold-medal, or silver-toothpick their ex-President, the new Minister of Finance, but H. E. properly and blandly refused a compliment which is getting so very common that it amounts to no compliment at all. Dr. Garcia made an excellent suggestion to his young friends, viz., that they should keep the money they intended to spend on him, and with it start a small Savings Bank to meet cases of sickness or misfortune amongst themselves. The young men, we understand, have adopted the excellent suggestion of their ex-chief.

Millocker's tuneful comic opera "Gasperone" was produced with great success at the San Martin on Thursday. The music is tuneful and scholarly, more especially the waltz and the comic quartette in the last act. The scenery and costumes were extremely good, as was the acting, in which department F. Gargano especially shone. Indeed, this capable artiste has never been seen to greater advantage in this country; in spite of his drollery, he never overdid his part. Srta. Borghi, although her voice is somewhat weak, was an intelligent and graceful representative of the Countess. Sra. Mancini, however, was the feeble point in the piece; her voice is not very pleasing, whilst her acting is lacking in animation. The tenor was very good and was heartily applauded for his share of the duet in the second act. The piece itself is very amusing, there being plenty of plot and rapid action; it is bound to prove a great draw.

Bears performing before the Queen—After the christening of the infant daughter of the Duke of Duchess of Portland, on May 3, the Queen, it appears, drove through Windsor. Upon reaching the road which intersects the Long Walk near the Prince Consort's Farm, Her Majesty saw two foreigners with a brown bear resting under the shade of the elms in the avenue. The Queen ordered her carriage to be stopped, and the men were requested to allow the bear to give a performance. This was at once acceded to, the animal dancing with a stick in its paws on the green sward, and occasionally hugging its keeper, much to the amusement of the royal party, who laughed heartily at its antics. Her Majesty gave the men some money at the close of the performance, and subsequently returned to the Castle. The bear owners, who were greatly delighted with the honor conferred upon them, and the royal largess, refreshed themselves after the Queen's departure with ginger beer and lemonade, and the animal was rewarded with a biscuit or two. Her Majesty further patronised the performing bears on May 5th. Jean Barat and five other foreigners attended with three brown bears, by Her Majesty's command, at Windsor Castle and gave a performance in the quadrangle for the entertainment of the children of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Prince and Princess Henry of Battenberg, who are residing with the Queen at the Palace. The bears, says a Windsor correspondent, were made to imitate fighting, shaking hands, and a rolling somersault. The bear owners were liberally remunerated by the Queen, and a dinner given them at her expense at the inn where they have been stopping.

CONGRESS.

A report from the Legislative and Judicial committee advising in favour of Deputy Olmedo's bill on the transaction of business was agreed to, as was also a report from the Immigration and Colonisation committee advising the refusal of a bill presented in 1879 by Deputy Guastanino with reference to navigation between Buenos Ayres and Formosa.

MARKTWAIN CRUSTY, BUT WORTH $2,000,000.

Mark Twain's success in life seems to have made him crusty and sour. Years ago, when he was struggling for fame and fortune on the Pacific coast, those who knew him said he was warm-hearted and cordial. But he is certainly far from that now. When he comes to New York, as he often does, he evades newspaper reporters and if by chance these industrious gentlemen manage to waylay him and seek an interview on any topic, the great humorist is not only reticent, but ugly and disagreeable. Perhaps to those he knows he is more friendly. At any rate, the reporters now steer clear of him. They never bother him when he comes to the city, and he is left alone in his glory.

I saw him on the street a while ago, dressed in a dark business suit. He has an attractive face, a splendid head, set upon a pair of strong shoulders. His eyes are clear, and his mouth denotes great firmness. His hair is silvering gradually, although there is an abundance of it. His moustache is reddish, and his eye-brows are heavy.

Mr Clemens lives in style in Hartford, Conn. His home is on Farmington avenue. It is a house luxuriously furnished and filled with rare pictures and books. The occupant of the house adjoining is Mrs Harriet Beecher Stowe, and not far away is the home of Charles Dudley Warner. Mr Clemens never talks about his books except to those whom he knows intimately. But there is one topic that he is willing to discuss at any time, and that is international copyright. In fact, it may be said that he is a crank on the subject. His books still sell well. His "Innocents Abroad," the most successful of all his literary ventures, has a steady sale, and his fortune is estimated by those who know him to be considerably over $2,000,000. Sometimes fun pays.—American paper.

POR LOS MISMOS

Importante Remate de 24 Leguas kilometricas

O sean 60,000 hectareas de magnifico

CAMPO

De los Territorios Nacionales, divididas en 6 lotes y situados en la Seccion IV letra A, Nos. 15, 16, 25 y 24 y Letra B Nos. 11 y 20 de la misma seccion.

Estos lotes son parte del Establecimiento El Hucal que fueron comprados por el Sr. Antonino Cambaceres.

Base para la venta 3 pesos por hectarea. Con ventajosas condiciones de pago; mitad al contado y mitad a 6 meses, sin interes y con garantia hipotecaria.

El Miercoles, 18 de Junio

A las 2 de la tarde.

En nuestra casa Alsina 482.

La venta se hará por lotes de 10,000 hectareas o sean 4 leguas kilometricas.

En cuanto a la bondad de los campos podemos asegurar que son excelentes y de lo mejor de toda la Pampa Central; fueron elejidos por el finado Señor Don Antonio Cambaceres, que era competentisimo en la materia. Para mejor inteligencia de los interesados, podemos ofrecerles un informe municioso de cada lote, que obra en nuestro poder.

Su ubicacion tan proxima á Bahia Blanca puerto importantisimo, es una ventaja que no debe perderse de vista.

El Ferro carril que actualmente se construye y que unira aquel puerto con Villa Mercedes, San Luis, cruzará esos campos y una estacion en los mismos es casi segura.

Tomando en consideracion todas estas ventajas, creemos que la base de 3 pesos m/n por hectarea es sumamente bajo.

Todo comprador sin excepcion oblará 5 o/o al recibir y firmar el boleto de compraventa. Por mas datos ocurrir a nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482.

ON 'CHANGE.

PRICE OF GOLD TO-DAY.

First Ring............ 245.00

Friday, June 13th.

The market opened this morning leaning on the loan, and gradually as the telegrams from London and Paris came in more buyers of gold came on, which at once shewed how the wind blew. Perhaps one of the most injurious positions for this market is the present: those who hold the wires speculate at will for a rise or a fall. Far better for the Minister of Hacienda to come forward with an official declaration that for the present the Government will make no loan at all than to have the market hanging on uncertainties, which give margin for the greatest speculation. The news most current on 'Change this morning was that the difficulties in the way of the loan were increasing, and that in all probability there would be for the present no loan at all. On the strenth of these telegrams some of the strongest houses in the market bought gold for end of month and end of July.

In addition to the slow progress of the loan negotiations, which undoubtedly tends to keep gold prices firm, it was said to-day by the brokers that the great press of buyers for to-morrow is a clear indication of a "descubierto" for the weekly liquidation. This, however, should not have told so directly on the rates for end of month and end of July, and when the great demand for these dates is taken into consideration, it must be confessed that the late news about the loan cannot be of the most satisfactory description when sellers on time are so retiring. Then again, it was said that Dr. Garcia is polishing up his scheme for issue of 100,000,000 bonds redeemable by both interest and amortizations, and this also affected the market, as its tendency is to increase the paper issue. Our evening colleagues persist in declaring that Morton, Rose & Co. have withdrawn from the London syndicate, and that the loan will only be given on most onerous terms. The market has undoubtedly, be it due to this or other causes, lost much of yesterday's elasticity.

In spite of the firmness in gold, stocks ruled fairly buoyant to-day almost up to the close, National Bank Shares running up to 165 and closing at 163.50 cash, and half a point higher for end of month. Catalinas were in good demand, and looked firm at one moment at 39 50; at the close, however, they weakened off a trifle, closing at 38.60 for cash and 38.80 for to-morrow. In Cedulas the movement was also brisk and prices firm, but everything else, including Constructors, neglected. In gold the bulk of business was for cash, the rate opening at 242.50, falling to 240.50 and closing with buyers at 245. For dates little or nothing was done, owing to the pretensions of sellers, who asked 248 for end of month.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during the first ring:

"Quousque tandem!" The market is tantalized with all the conflicting reports floated about the success or failure of the London loan. The wise men, meantime, reserve their opinion, but as straws on the current to guide the spectator, we may echo certain facts well known to the market at large. It is well known that last Saturday the Government telegraphed to London that it accepted all the terms and conditions submitted by the bankers; in other words, so far as the action of the Argentine Government was concerned, the loan was concluded. We all thought the loan done; still to day, six days later, the operation hangs fire.

It is also known that Mr. Uriburu, who had already resolved to send in his resignation on that very Saturday, if we can give credit to the reports published, did not append his signature to the loan negotiations carried on in this market, no doubt from motives of delicacy towards the Government he abandoned and towards the bankers whose unlimited confidence he enjoyed. This is another flaw in the business, perhaps the principal one that accounts for the solemn fact that to-day, six days later, the loan still hangs fire.

Then came the split in the Cabinet, which in itself did not matter much, but then came the revulsion of opinion and the rise in the gold market which, in themselves, mighty effects of a small cause, did not matter little. On the heels of this cause and those effects came the delays that have postponed till to-day, six days later, the loan, supposed to be done last Saturday, yet still hanging fire.

From all this we can gather one solemn and stern fact, that the loan done last Saturday is undone to-day, Friday: not that the Argentine Government has backed out or has gone back on the conditions and terms framed last Saturday, but owing to fresh difficulties raised by the London bankers. And, no wonder. On Saturday last, only six days ago, with Minister Uriburu in office and a policy of stirring reform in perspective, gold was booked to go under 200 with a radical return of confidence. To-day, however, with a rise in gold and an ebb of that timid confidence that flees at the slightest danger, the condition of this and the London market is so altered, that new terms, new conditions must be appended to the loan of six days ago—still hanging fire.

To be or not to be! We wish it were the former, but we are afraid it will be the latter, and what strengthens our conviction is the defiant rumour that announces the imminent execution of the cherished dream of the new finance-minister, viz—the issue of one hundred million land bonds. What increases our dismal belief is the probability that any fresh exactions from the London bankers will wound the local "amour propre" and afford an excuse to the government to resort to other measures than those forthcoming from London to relieve the situation, in the shape of a loan hanging fire.

Add to the above the general opinion of the representative men of the interior provinces that the only means of salvation lie in an increase in the paper issue, convinced as they are, and rightly so, that not a dollar of the gold from the London loan will ever reach the Interior. To them a foreign loan is like so much moonshine, the actual rays of comfort merely falling on this market. Then there is an undercurrent of suspicion that the opinion of the gentlemen of the Interior may prevail in the councils of State as well as in the lobbies of Congress. Can it be wondered that gold refuses to fall under such circumstances? Nay, it is a wonder that it does not rise higher; the only brake on the market is the impending shower of the proceeds of the Provincial Railway's sale to the Great Western Railway Company, in London, and the dubious loan, settled last Saturday, but still hanging fire.

Let us not be deceived. If the loan continue to hang fire another day the gold market will bolt, for, in the event of no loan, paper money is our only refuge, and we deeply sympathise with the Minister and Government that must resort to such an unpleasant extremity. The clandestine issues may be excused in the light of a miserable past; but the issue of fresh paper money, in the light of the present and the future, can find no apologist, for it will be a crime that will smell to heaven, through the London loan hanging fire.

In the midst of all these doubts and anxieties, of all these hopes and fears, the market is groping in the dark, trusting to a financial fatality that may land it in the refuge haven of London gold or on the reefs of more depreciated paper money. "Qui vivra, verra"—let us hope the market will emerge triumphant from this dilemma.

The s.s. Rosario left Genoa yesterday for the Plate with 500 passengers.

The s.s. Chichester has arrived in Montevideo and brings 2,500 tons of cargo for this port.

There was rather a let-down in the stock market at the second hour, due to the spurt in gold, which stood at one moment at 252.50 and left off firm at 247. Catalinas dropped to 36.60 and left off a point higher, whilst National Bank Shares opened at 163.50, fell to 162.50 and closed at 164. Cedulas were rather weaker and Constructors neglected.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks during the second ring:—

The splendid central property in Calle Cuyo put up at auction to day by Funes and Lagos had to be withdrawn; no bids. The upset price was 150 dols. per square yard. The house is occupied by Don Juan Antonio Fernandez, the popular Bolsa broker.

The news to-day from Montevideo was that the Health Board of that city has abolished quarantine.

Gold closed this evening at a late hour at 246, six points beneath the top price privately quoted at the second ring. We might mention that it would be better for all if gold were quoted officially at the 2nd ring: the present regulations are an absurd obstacle to business and are apt to lead the outside market astray.

The report of the "Sindico" to the Banco Constructor was handed round this evening. The Bank has 48,397 dols. in its safe and holds properties to the amount of 18,178,107 dollars. The reserve-fund amounts to 2,850,000 dols., the capital being 15 millions.

The Nacional attributes the idea of starting the following scheme for a re-discounting bank to a foreign banker of this city:

1st—Under auspices and control of Government a bank to be styled the Banco Nacional de Redescuentos shall be started with a capital of 100,000,000 dollars in discount bond which shall be obligatory currency in the Republic.

2nd—The bonds shall be applied exclusively to re-discounting the values, trade bills etc. discounted by the banks and the establishment will be administered by a Board composed of merchants all named by Government. The rate of discount would be 6 o/o per annum which would leave the bank a clear profit of over 5 millions per annum and pave the way for withdrawing the whole 100,000,000 issued within say 12 years as well as facilitating the bank a means to amortize their capitals.

The Provincial Railway Board has ordered the sale of 99,000 square metres of land on the cliff overlooking the Parana at San Nicolas, and which belonged to the above line. The lands were not included in the sale made to the English syndicate, and they will be sold with the upset price of the Cedulas on them without difference of par and market value. The auctioneers, Messrs. A. Texo, F. Damiani, Lamela and Martinez, Friaz and Gazcon, Lopez and Serna, and C. Etchegaray, will announce the date of sale.

Circulars of the movement of La Plata port for months of April and May were handed round, being drawn up by the new shipping firm of Ortiz de Rozas and Company of which Mr Manterola is manager. Mr Ortiz de Rozas is well known in the market and in Provincial Government circles, whilst the manager, Mr Manterola, was connected for a long term of years with the Provincial Bank retiring from his post with a pension; with regard to the circulars it shews that during the month of April the entries were 30 ocean going vessels and the clearances 15, and for May 13 entries and 22 clearances. The most complete details are given, and the circular will be a valuable monthly addition to our sources of information of the new port.

The sale has been effected of the house property Calle Parana 425-7 for $40,500, buyer Mr J Castaprino.

Dr. Costa, Argentine Attorney-General, advises the Government to lay Dr. Vaca Gusman's banking scheme before Congress, on the ground that as one of the features of the scheme contemplates the issuing of coin, the bank cannot be considered on the level of the guaranteed banks and should secure the approval of Congress for its charter.

Exchange rules very stiff, and brokers reported that a number of Baring's bills in connection with the Montevidean loan, which could not be placed in the Mount, were brought up to this market and passed here. The amount was not large, as all the banks in Montevideo had taken some, whilst the great bulk was sent to Rio, whence the gold goes to the Mount. Rates are quoted at 48—48½d., 5.04—06 francs Paris and 4.07—08 marks.

The following telegram was received today from London, shewing the prices of Argentine stocks in that market:—

According to late cables from Europe Argentine produce continues to hold its own both in the hides, wool and meat markets. B. Aires novillo hides in Barcelona fetch 70 pesetas on the puntal Catalan, which shews a rise of 3 pesetas on previous quotation. Salted potro hides in Hamburg being quoted firm at 15 marks the piece. In the Roubaix and Tourcoign markets Arg. wools are firm, though the combed article shews a fall in Roubaix of 5 cents per 100 kilos. River Plate frozen wethers are selling at 4d the lb., an advance of a ⅛d on previous price.

The frauds in the Provincial bank were discovered by the turning up of some notes of the 1883 issue which should have been reduced to ashes long ago in view of a later issue of the National Bank. Naturally the appearance in circulation of the old notes gave birth to suspicions that the clerks of the "Quema" office had not done their duty, and hence the proceedings.

The shipment of live animals for England appears to be growing in importance, and the port of La Plata offers special facilities for the loading of this class of cargo. The Allan liner Montevidean, as we have said, has loaded at the Muelles y Depositos of that port a thousand capones and a hundred novillos for account of Mr. Ewart (estanciero), which are being shipped by Mr. Luis Salas and Co. These animals come up from Las Flores and Azul camps, while four hundred capones, shipped by E. T. Puleston also go in the same steamer, the animals being fat and in first-class condition, from Mr. Buchanan's camp in the Magdalena district. Messrs. Dickenson Brothers of Cañada de Gomez, Santa Fe, are also making a trial shipment of both capones and novillos. The animals are loaded direct from the railway wagons on board the steamer, without any difficulty whatever. The Phœnician, of the Allan line, also enters La Plata shortly to take more trial shipments, and we hear that the 'Allan Line' has lately left Liverpool fixed to take from La Plata some four thousand capones and two hundred head of cattle. This business of exportation of live animals we believe will grow into a most important one and means millions for our estancieros. We shall await with anxiety the result of these trial shipments.

The fine country seat in the Co. Waterford known as Lauren'um was recently brought to the hammer, Mr. George Dennehy of Cappoquin Villa, Putney, London, being the lucky purchaser. When advertised in our columns last year we ventured to recommend this beautiful place overhanging the glorious old Blackwater, as a fine investment for retiring sheepfarmers or worn-out city merchants, and more than one of our readers will regret that they heeded not our advice. Who has not lost on the Bolsa more than ten times the value of this truly delightful spot? That land is some of the finest in the kingdom for grazing and cattle rearing, an industry so dear to every River Plate man's heart, whilst the fishing, shooting and scenery are worth more for restoring health than all the drugs and physicians in creation.

As a significant sign of the times, we may note that machine-made bricks have risen to $60 per thousand, whilst the old slipshod hanky-cranky, native article has fallen off from 24 to 16 dol. The reason for this anomaly is simple enough; boundary walls, single-storey houses and such light work having almost entirely ceased, whilst water-works, city improvements and even monumental piles are rapidly on the increase: contracts entered into before the crisis burst upon our day-dream and which must be carried out now to the bitter end, thereby prolonging and intensifying the terrible situation to which they themselves gave birth.

The following figures (taken from Mr. J. J. Smith's book "Monedas Estranjeras") shew the value of gold coins at to-day's premium of 145 o/o:—

Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machine Company, limited.

This company is prepared to supply the Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machines with their accessories, in any quantities. They are now coming into general use in Australia, where, during the past season upwards of 7,000,000 of sheep have been shorn by them; and it is confidently expected that over 20,000,000 will be shorn by them in that country this year. The following are some of their proved advantages over the ordinary shears:—

Estimated at per sheep per clip.

(1)	Increase in quantity and value of wool (See testimonials)	11d.
(3)	Saving of per cent. usual allowance for deaths resulting from cuts and ticks	2½
(4)	Saving of labor and time, as the work can be performed in half the time usually occupied with the old style of shearing	1¼
	Total per clip per sheep	16d.
(5)	Total absence of suffering to the sheep.

These economies add enormously to the income of the Australian wool-growers, and are applicable relatively to sheep-farmers everywhere.

"Curative Paste"
BUCHANAN.

Colonia (B. O.), May 1890

Gentlemen—

Having recently accepted the Agency for the "Sale of Curative Paste" for this Republic, I have great pleasure in introducing this dip to your notice.

This dip has been found unrivalled by some of the largest Estancieros that have used it for some time past; and this great success has induced the manufacturer to bring it more prominently before the sheep-farming Republic.

As a cure of Scab it is the most effective, and as a preventive the most permanent that has ever been offered to the public. Scab CANNOT EXIST where "CURATIVE PASTE" is used.

As an economiser of time, labour and expense, it is decidedly the best; curings are less frequent, the necessity of extra men is avoided and consequently less expense incurred.

But in addition to this, we claim and can prove that sheep cured with this dip yield a vastly superior quality and greater quantity of wool than those cured with other dips.

These are advantages that a sheep-farmer cannot, and will not, overlook if he wishes to manage his animals profitably.

Try a sample and satisfy yourselves that in recommending "Curative Paste" to be the most effective, the safest and cheapest dip existing we do but claim that which is admitted by all who use it. (Vide testimonial.

Yours truly
ARTHUR JAS. KELLY.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's
CHLORODYNE.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

From Symes & Co. Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London! Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhoea and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

Caution.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr J Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to,—See "The Times," July 13, '864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.
